BELMONT CHRON

B. R. COWEN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.]

"HE WHO LOVES NOT HIS COUNTRY CAN LOVE NOTHING."

ITERMS $1,50 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE

IWHOLE NO. 960

NEW SERIES, VOL. VII, NO. 45.]

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY. AUGUST 16, 1855.

Office on North side of Main Street in the New Masonic Hall, a few doors East of the Court House, and a few doors West of the Norton House.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

If paid within three months,
If paid after that time,
Papers discontinued only at the option of the edito
while arrearages are due,

POETRY.

MILTON ON HIS LOSS OF SIGHT. FROM THE OXFORD EDITION OF MILITON'S PORMS.

I am old and blind! Men point at me as smitten by God's frown! Afflicted, and deserted of my kind, Yet I am not east down.

1 am weak, yet strong, I murmus not, that I no longer see;-Poor, old, and helpless, I the more belong, Father Supreme! to Thee.

A merciful One! When monence farthest, then Thou art most Mhon friends pass by, my weaknesses to shan, Thy chariot I hear.

Thy glorious face Is leaning toward me, and its holy light Shines in upon my lonely dwelling place --And there is no more night.

On my bended knee, I recognize Thy purpose, clearly shown; My vision Thou hast dim ned that I may see Thysut, Thyself alone.

I have naught to fear; This darkness is the shedow of Thy wing: Beneath it I am almost sacred-here Can come no evil thing.

Oh! I seem to stand Trembling, where foot of mortal ne'er hath been Wrapped in the radiance from thy sinless land, Which eye hath never seen.

Vision come and go: Shapes of resplendent beauty round me throng, From angel has I seem to hear the flow Of soft and holy rong.

It is nothing now, When lieaven is opening on my sightless eyes, When airs from Paradise retresh my brow, The earth in darkness lies.

In a purer clime, My being fills with rapture-waves of thoght Roll in upon my spirit-strains subline Break over me unsought.

Give me now my lyre I feel the stirring of a curt divine, Within my bosom glows uneartaly fire, Lit by no skill of mine.

Random Reflections at Even.

BY WILL "How calmly sinks the setting sun!"

Yet twilight lingers still;
And beautiad as dream of Heaven
It slombers on the hill:
Earth sleeps with all her glorious things,
Beneath the Holy spirit's wings,
And, rendering back the hues above, Seems resting in a trance of love. G. D. PRENTICE.

and speculations. Bright and beautilu' star, gives us pain to wok at it, and we are glad it whose pure, mild beams, smile so gently up- is only for a . y. on us-who, or what art thou! Art thou an "Died list no "." It was nobody that you essence-symbolical of that Great Invisible know you think, and so you pass on to a 'Sale' Power, whose presence filleth the universe! or a "Bargain" that you see beyond, and foror art thou-as astronomers tell us-naught get that there was ever such a name or such a but a coarse lump of gross matter-like unto thing as dving in the world. How apt we our own green earth! Perhaps, in thy beight are to forget that there are those though, who domains, abide the spirits of the Just, made can hardly see the name for the heavy rate perfect! the souls of that blood-washed that's falling, while the heaven over head is throng, who have gone up through much trib- bright and clear; that eyes do rest thereon ulation! Perhaps, from thy crystal chambers that see a world put out where you discern are sent forth ministering spirits-Guardian name; that wonder how the sun can shine Angels, who watch over the actions of the since sun-down came to them; who hear with children of men, cheering and encouraging their hearts, the idle laugh that's passing on them in hours of despondency and gloom; the wind. when the heart is sick, and darkness and "Died last night." A pleasant time to die despair surround them; or pointing to a high- but not last night-oh, no-some other night.

goodness, and immortality.

It is a beautifully sublime, yet fearful ides- the port of earth by everlasting lamps. that not one action shall ever perish; or one "Died last night." How many died; how single word that has passed the lips, shall many beautiful and good; how many young and

THE CHRONICLE. As a pebble dropped into the placid waters | you and we know; perhaps one that you and charge all the members of the Convention nothing when any good could be accomplishwavelets, each succeeding one widens farther PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING- and farther, becoming smaller and smaller. until all finally become invisible to the eye, but still pursue their beautiful undulations.

> bleeding heart-what Orphans' cries and doubt whether any would if they could, widows' sighs and groans-what broken proover which fiends laugh and angels weep .- everybody thinks-But the heart sickens over the deplorable villainy of man's inhumanity: let us, therefore, draw a veil over this part of the scene; dent. * * * * * Now let us bestow year or so ago, when they wrote down the new thing, even to those who in life may not have a passing thought on the other side of the name-the same name they write now, but loved him. picture "Truth is the ruling principle in ownerless; that will be thought of, but not Mr. Woods had been ill about three weeks. behalf of suffering humanity everywhere, are er from its channel, and make his everlasting exister ce on Monday as above stated come, to the desponding heart, like sweet who will ever think is the river rolls through wilderness then afforded, by dist of hard work lustre now, than when the mighty mandate a life as sparkling and as free; that dances in 1814; and was in the garcison at Fort fering from severe pains in the head, parties popular mind:

on her triumphal car o'er ile ering earth. We have known men tear down the old roof- timber all the day he haumered at law of the human vesself and billowy main; as though she had never true that sheltered them from infancy, their evenings while other weary workers slept mighty commotions, which this earth has unmighty commotions the unmighty commotion in the covers of a book. We do may be case as under or the measures. The blossoms for the suggestion. That this might be wall destroy, they first make unmighty commotion in the covers of a book. We do wall destroy, they first make unmighty commotion in the covers of a book. We do wall destroy they first make unmighty commotion in the covers of a book. We do wall destroy they first make unmighty commotion in the covers of a book. We do wall destroy they first make unmighty commotion in the cov purer and better life, which is to come. Colerain, Ohio, 1855.

"DIED LAST NIGHT."

Coupled with the bridals, printed in little type, leading off the advertisements, joined by a sorry jest, hard behind, a Market close The bright and glorious sun, emblem of beside a Cotillion, what a place a newspaper power and majesty, just hiding his broad disc is, to put a Death in. We are reading somebelow the western horizon, and dipping into thing about a home, and all at once, we are the regions of infinity, gilds with the reful- in the place of graves; we are looking over gent radiance of his departing beams, the the testimonials to the Elixir of Life, and distant woods and hill-tops; pouring a flood come, before we know it, upon a "Died last of golden, brilliant, and translucent light and night." If there were only some retired and coloring upon the few fleecy clouds, that shaded corner in a newspaper, with a willow float, as if borne on angels' wings, in the or an urn in it, where the names that have azure vault above, painting and tinting them, no owners could be recorded, and we could with the most gorgeous coloring; as if to go, when weary with rambling through the mack the puny efforts of our frail and feeble columns of bu tle and business, and read; and think how surely, one after another, all If there is one symbol in nature, by which names tend thither; those that stand at the a finite being, can have any just conception head of the column editorial in capitals; those of the splendidly glorious and unfading beauty that are pointed at with a finger, and wonderof the New Jerusalem, it would seem, it must, ed over with Exclamation points, and asked be the soft and beauteous twilight. * * over with Interrogations; those that were * * * As the onward course of our brides the other day, and are brides still, but terrestrial Latl, wheels us farther and farther with new bridegrooms; those that were hefrom the source of light, darkness gradually roes and found place in the "leader;" or draws his dim curtain around us; and those beautiful, and woven in a wreath for "Poet's bright orbs, away, far off in the dim vault of Corner." But there is no such retreat-nothether, like faithful sentinels on the watch- ing but a narrow black line like this-to keep towers of freedom-begin to peer down upon the world out; to prevent the Railway Train us-calling our thoughts from earth, to that whose times are advertised below, from runbetter, purer, hoher world on high. Uncon ning over the name and obliterating it. And sciously the mind is carried away on fancy's so it is like a grave in a throughfare; covered fairy wing, and indulges in its own reflections with dust, and jurred by passing wheels; in er, brighter, purer goal-to actions of virtue, a great while yet to come. To go abroad by the true light of sta s; to find the way out from

while arrearages are due,

The Mis of any kritista.

Each square, (11 lines or fess,) three week,
Every additional inaction.

Verify adjoind inaction.

Very additional inaction.

Very additional inaction.

Uniform the first sements one column,
Half column.

The All letters addressed to the selitor must be paid to remeattention.

In All letters addressed to the selitor must be paid to fed ark stains, are written on the broad pages of eternity! What careless cords—triffing foreign countries that are not laid down on in themselves, yet it may be, they have pierc about that going away alone, that wrapping the mantle of immortality about us; that putting aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of a thing aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of a thing aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of a thing aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of a thing aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of a thing aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of a thing aside with a pale hand, the azure curtains that are drawn around this crafte of the first time in our lives, for we are not dead; of dark stains, are written on the broad pages of eternity! What careless cords—triffing foreign countries that are not laid down on any maps we know about. There must be in themselves, yet it may be, they have pierc- any maps we know about. There must be ed some gentle heart--; what ruined hopes lovely lands somewhere starward, for none and blighted prespects-what crushed and ever return that go there, and we very much mises and vows forgot-what damning deeds as soon as they can-they take down the old visible in the haunts and on the faces of men. of guilty perjury and black assassination- family Bible somewhere, and they write a de- The death of Mr. Woods, though measurably what unutterable anguish, misery and wo- parture-the clearance of a soul. Sometimes expected, for some time, has caused this manwhat hideous crimes too deeply dark to tell, it is a bad, but as rare Ben Johnson said, so idestation in our community more percepti-

"Twas but a bad, yet did contain More sweetness than shall bloom ngain."

when it lays off this mortal clay, to that sweet herbs of Egypt and embalmer's linen to excess. He died a year or two since in the bands, and desecrating hands. secrets it had kept. But to lie in the dull memories. earth: it seems no wonder that we say, "light In 1824 he was elected to Congress. He rest the turf above him," when one we loved was distinguished there, as everywhere, by are sure of at the last, that "gives us pause." had palaces in comparison therewith.

seraph like did waft the body back to free air again, on crimson wings of flame. The little that remains-a handful of mere dust-is nothing to appal; a graceful thing it stands, wreathed round with flowers; a solemn monitor-the empty goblet of the life we live!

But "died last night." Who died! Last night at twelve. What name? Ah! one did die whose birth was welcomed; whose name was on all lips; who loved the flowers, and kissed them e'en to blossoming; who will be talked of when we ourselves are dead. It was a maiden, the sweet child of buried with her kindred in the Past. But yesterday, her name was everywhere; "naw none so poor to do it reverence;" and the rea-

"Died last night" at twelve the month of of death."-June 1st.

A FIGHT BETWEEN GENERAL PILLOW AND Major Donelson -A personal collision recently occured at Columbia, Tenn., between the naturious Major Donelson, the renegade Democrat, and Gen. Pillow. Donelson, in the course of a speech, denounced the Nashville Convention as traitors, Pillow, being until his death, n the crowd, promptly replied, "You lie-you pertinent tooi!' Gen. Pillow rushed toward the stand, but was arrested by the crowd - public question he was never known to flinch the sentence of death passed upon Mrs. Rubin-Donelson obtained a stick, and went on with many beautiful and good; now many young and his remarks. He said he did not mean to manded. Time, labor and money were to that of imprisonment for life.

of the tranquil lake, produces its circling we loved. We shall hear of it by and by, with being traitors, but in this exception he ed by them. Lawand Order had in him an delphia U. S. Gazelle says: and then we shall remember that it was last did not embrace Gen. Pillow. Gen. Pillow underlating advocate. Expressing himself The removal or Gov. Reeder excites deep devotes of Barchus. night she died. To die at any time "is a dread then denounced him fiercely as a liar and a strongly, in accordance with his marked char- and general indignation throughout the Northand an awful thing;" to die when day is break- traitor to the Democracy and to the country, actor he was acknowledged on all hands to be ern States, the feeling extending even to During an interview which Martineff. the ing; to die at high moon; to die when the pearl and rushed at the stan ., but was arrested - of a disposition forgiving and kind beyond those who have hitherto and little or nothing Russian comedian and minic, succeeded in

From the Hamilton in elligencer. John Woods.

DIED at his residence in this easy on Monday, the th ultimo, John Woods, agos 61 years well as in hall. But it is only when a man noble institution. of murk falls, that the solemnity and hush which should mark the passage of a soul, are bly than any other which has taken place for years. He had so long walked among vs-so Sometimes a blossom waited from the tree, so long been a speaker in public assemblies long been prominent in public enterprisesand leave the reader to pursue these reflec- by some returning breath, to heaven. How -that to miss his familiar face and expect tions further, or not, as is deemed most pro- different the record on the other page, a to see and hear him no more, was a solemn Selezer, of commbus, Ohio.

mankind," and we would fain believe there are many, very many, whose pure hearts and not in the crowds, not in the merry festival. In the merry festival, and is believe the same discovery, nearly or quite a year ago, and is beyond doubt entitled to the distinction the same discovery and is the same discovery and is the same discovery. The same discovery are not to the same discovery and is the same discovery. high minds, still bear the glorious impress but in the twilight hours at home, and then apprehensions of its fatal termination. Last of being the very first to apply to the galvanties. Like you bright star whose be syllabled no more. But while we think much be made by the bear to be a proposed of the large state upon authority that cannot be gapped. of the Divinity. Like you bright star, whose pure, ethereal beams, gladden, cheer, and of it, was not that a grand idea of the old anison the heart, so the road danks of kind. Visignth—we are not quite certain. The Case.—Mr. Friedemann, a German misentiven the heart; so the good deeds of kind- Visigoth -- we are not quite certain, though, ease finally terminated in typhoid fever, with ring engineer or Union County, N. C., was Gentle actions, and kind and loving word. Missours to its fountain springs, than there John was raised, and received the rough elemake up the sum of human happiness; and within the crystal cradic he had found? But ments of such an education as this primitive messengers of Mercy, scattering doubt and day, from winter into spring, that in the day-time and hard study by night-- left the patient badly salivated.

and kindred, sleep with the silent dead; your care where we lie, at last, and there are very upon carrent principles and steady habits, he to Charlotte, where Mr. Pariz had a galvanic stands thus; and kindred, sleep with the stient dead; vows have been plighted, tears have been wept; few indeed, who have not given it thought.

To BLEACH STRAW.—Straw may differed very materially from the majority of his purpose, and the battery, well suited to his purpose, and the battery well suited to his purpose, animated them, have returned to that source for the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud ally rising over their heads. A notable extremely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud ally rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud ally rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud ally rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud ally rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all which a few brimstone matches are placed, and below the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud all y rising over their heads. A notable extramely expense of the worm, wrapped in a snow shroud all y rising over their heads. for the worm, wrapped in a snowy shroud at mong the Alps, until their heights so pale in ample at the end of good and bad habits. States mint of that place.

States mint of that place.

Total ample at the end of good and bad habits of the state of the And that moon now riding high in the bine succionce with God, grow rosy in the setting might be afforded by comparing the career of And that the control of the control seek that "balmy rest to mortals given," that "Ranz des Vaches" of closing time—there than a prominent and talented young lawyer, inches high and seving arise in the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such a reliable to the morning with renewed would be something grand about such as the properties of the reliable to health, and vigor, as the spirit should agise, pose as that; and how much nobler than the Sargent was reckl as in his babits, and drank

County Inhemory, a hopeless lunatic. While What would y u think of a grave in the Sea he was thus a public charge for twenty years, among the groves of red coral, where the stars a man far behind him at the beginning of the would shine dimly down, and where it would race, was laboriously planning the improvenot be quiet like night at all, whence He alone ments of his county, and reaping the golden who hade its waves be still, and every one was rewards of a well-spent life. Here is a moral dumb, could summon an unbosoming of the which the young should let sink deep into their laid upon his lonely pillow, and the cold his industry, and was largely instrumental in coverlid of dark brown earth abov.e There securing Ohio her first large grant of lands is a pent up, suffocating thought that will not for canals. He served two terms in Congress. et one's soul out, in that narrow subterranean At the end of his second term, changes in cabin, that even the houseless and homeless Politics threw him into the minority, he warmly opposing the election of Gen. Jackson-Those old gray dwellers in the Caves of old, He retired on the 4th of March, 1829, and on who slept in peace, till the hollow winds wafted their dust away, to give new tenents room, lisher and editor of this paper, which he con-They build no Pynes now, that waiting the latter part of the time in conection with not for the slow, crumbling processes of time, Lewis D. Campbell as printer. In 1832, after the Presidential contest, he sold his interest in the Inteligencer to Mr Campbell, and returned to the practice of his profession, gathered in an urn. It might have held a which he proscuted vigorously nearly all flower that faded there and died. There's the time until his election by the Legislature of 1845-6 to the important post of auditor of State.

As Auditor, he left indelible marks on the policy and history of the State. Ohio had been running into debt, year by year, going a mercuralized system. into debt to pay interest, and thus compounding it, until the public obligation loomed up in fearful magnitude. Something must be done-John Brough had vainly endeavored to accomplis's a reform in taxation-fear Spring. When ten thousand bells were ring- broaded over our legislators-no one dared large elements, so as to produce the required ing midnight out, she died. Died and was touch the dreaded subject Mr. Woods, as Auditor, was mainly instrumental, by his courage, industry, and perseverance, in Ohio from the bankruptcy and ruin.

At the end of his second term he returned home-but his reckless energy would not ing the elements. May. "So dies in human hearts the thought allow him to cease work. He became President of the Hamilton and Eaton Railroad Company, and brought his strong power to bear on the completion of that work. Being opposed, however, to the "Piequa Branch," he was defeated in the second election. He immediately accepted the Presidency of the

Such is the brief history of a well-spent life, lie, sir!" Donelson rejoined, You are an im- terminated in the hope of a better one to come. Always on the moral side of every or fail in his duty at the time and place de- son, the famous "veiled murderesa" of Troy, and continue to circle on, on, ever onward: and gold of morning, and the glow of noon are When Major Donelson closed, Gen. Pillow compresses the lips-whether all blended upon palette of the West, was shouted for and mounted the stand.

or a disposition torgiving and sold of morning, and the glow of noon are When Major Donelson closed, Gen. Pillow compresses. The Havriss obtaining with Prince Volkhonrky, High men beginning life, he won many friends burg Democratic Union denounces the act un. Steward, the late Emperor Nicholas walked till the sky books like a great tinted shell. Gen. Pillow said to Major Donelson: "If smong rising men by his generous treatment equivocally in an article of some length, the into the room unexpectedly, yet with a dephemous oath, every harsh or careless word, thrown up upon the shore of Eternity. But to you charge or insinuate that you then de- and sympathy. But the remarkable manifes- tone of which may be imagined from the open- sign, as was soon made evident. Telling the every idle jest, every mocking taunt and go from this world to that, in the night, by nounced them as traitors; or if y wnov make totion of his good disposition, and the best, in , viz: scoraful snoer—goes spreading onward force the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false in the night, by mounced them as traitors; or if y unov make totion of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false in the night, by mounced them as traitors; or if y unov make totion of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false in the night, by mounced them as traitors; or if y unov make totion of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false in the night, by mounced them as traitors; or if y unov make totion of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false in the night, by mounced them as traitors; or if y unov make totion of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At was shown in the warm attachment of his goed disposition, and the best, in , viz:

At a constant of the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false;

At a constant of the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false;

At a constant of the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false;

At a constant of the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false.

At a constant of the pale light of stars, is most solemn and the charge, it is false;

At a constant of the pale light of s doors the Canal, the Basin our three railroads, perpetrated, a wrong which, ere long, will prossible," pleaded Martineff. "Nonsense," pearly all our turupikes, and Hydraulic, and bring shame and reproach upon those who said Nebolas; "I insist on its being done." hast, not least, our schools. He took a lead-were its instigators and its floors. The hour Pinding himself in the horns of a dilemma, [Correspondence of the New York Past. Electricity vs. Mercury.

BLAUVELTVILLE, Rockland Co , N. Y., Juy 14, 1855 .- There uppeared in the Evening Past of the 10th inst., an extra t of the Obic State Journal in relation to the treatment of mercurialized patients by electricity.

This treatment is just y signs ig d by the which is awarded to Doctors Youmans and

Mr. August Partz, however, a professor in Mineralogy and Chemistry, and at present an ness, charity, mercy and love, performed in that he was one-to bid them turn aside a riv- ulceration of the bowels, which ended his attacked with congestive chills in the month possesses firmness, honesty and appacity, and up together. Measures for the abolition of behalf of sulfering humanity everywhere, are with congestive chills in the month of waited up in gladness before the throne of bed therein, and then roll back the waters the Author of all good; who has said, "In asmuch as yo did it unto the least of one of went, a mighty requiem for him! For where much as ye did it unto the least of one of went, a mighty requiem for him? For where infancy, in the year 1797. His father settled house of a planter, and having no 'regular' Reader repeated personal assurances that the over in my reliad, at that time and since, I these, my brethren, ye a so did it unto me." better could be be laid, who traced the red in Warren county, near Springboro, where physician, there was administered to him, according to the common custom of the country, precisely as he did in the same position large quantities of mercury, in the form of calomel, which resulted in checking the chills, but went forth, "Let there be light, and there was on 'neath clear and cloud the same, may hade Meigs when peace was proclaimed. Aftera skeletor very near the heart; a hope that's wards he persever ngly carried out the de-

the wouth and placed in the hand, and again Court!

At the expiration of forty minutes, the neg- the Federal Government! ative had produced a blister, whence exuded It is not strange that such a state of affairs remarks on this subject: "We mean to rewith amalgam !

uncovered, and Friedemann was almost en- and their posterity." ducted with great ability for three years; tirely free from pain at its expiration. During the second application, the coin were enveloped in wested linen. On the day upon which the last experiment was tried, (experiment, now no longer.) Mr. Friedemann returned to his duties at the nine, and has not since mercury in his system! This discovery, so terrible and and hitherto, incurable maindy-

Should any of the readers of the Post desire to test by experiment the efficacy & practicability of this remedy, let them observe the following:

Your battery should consist of only one or two quantity of electricity. To produce chemical action you must have quantity. To act physiologically or upon the nervous system, intensity is required. One is obtained by a single large element-the other by multiply-

The proper apparatus secured, common sense will suggest to nearly every one the proper place for the application and the time necessary for the effect. These observations and directions are, of ourse intended only for the non-professional. Hoping this discovery will atteact from the I remain very t uly yours,

D. C. STURGES. The Governor of New-York has commuted

ed in the cars of Angels, and carried up perting aside with a pale hand, the azure curpetually and eternally, before the Throne of tains that are drawn around this cradle of a the stand and finished his remarks.

This mind and energy nave left tach in great and independently an ing part, many years ago, in founding the has passed when a speciods if will decrive the mimic took heart of grace, with promp-Hamilton and Rossville Pemale Academy, the people. No pagelle charge of land 5.00 thude and presence of mind, buttoned his Death is at all times solemn—in hovel as which, we hope, will yet prove the basis of a ulstions can buffet an instant against the nont over his breast, expanded his chest, three, storm of wrath which will be aroused. A up his head, and assuming the Imperial port bigh minded, honorable, fearless and dater to the best of his power, strode across the > lighted the strongest expressions of indignation, dend the money to be paid. there. But the Argus, besides speaking its Journal as a "great discovery,", the glory of own sentiments clearly and heresty, tells some. UP WITH THE TIELS, -- A corresponunpleasant truths respecting the President deat of the Reshmand Examiner closes alet-

> We quote. We quote.
>
> "Immediately after the first election held "Pallaw-Slaveholders, let us "face the in Kansas, one after another of the Mis-music." We are not bound to believe every-Mineralogy and Chemistry, and at present an source invaders called upon the President and thing that Gen. Washington believed. We

Has she abated one jot of her glory or never weakened more.

Has she abated one jot of her glory or never weakened more.

Signs of his boyhoad; and taking a piece of brightness since the primagenitors of our race what tate held their cast off clothing, when the heart men say, they did not care ground in his father's neighborhood, to the primagenitors of our race what tate held their cast off clothing, when the heart men say, they did not care ground in his father's neighborhood, to the primagenitors of our race what tate held their cast off clothing, when the heart men say, they did not care ground in his father's neighborhood, to the primagenitors of our race what tate held their cast off clothing, when the primagenitors of our race when th first made love, and plighted their sacred vows what tate befel their cast off clothing, when "clear," as a means of support, he began to means of the electric fluid to extract any means of the ele in Eden's rosy bowers! Her cam mind face the great Discober comes on, but after all we study law with Ladge McLean in Lebanon.

—like some fairy queen of beauty—still rather thought they did, some little, linger- about the year 1817. He built a huter camp in a vessel, may it not also be possible, by single act. So far as lies in his power, he beams with maj stic bycliness, as she rides ing tenderness for the homestead of the souls on his clearings and after manling heavy the same means, to extract the mirrory from shows that there is no other alternative.— Cons for Measures.—A friend in-He could have devised no bester expedient formed as that tea made of white clover blos-The hypothesis seemed to him plausible, for building up the party that to annihilate some bus been successfully used in his fam-

so on alternatively, during a half hour, when that they handed down free to us, that is free Flannel should be applied after the part is the coin on the negative pole was removed by the Laws of Nature, free by the Laws of well fomented with turpentine. Repeat the from the mouth and found to be covered with the United States, free by the will of the Ma. application morning and evening. It is said a heavy coating of smalgamt. jority, & by the choice of its inhabitants, for- to be equally available for burns, scalds, On the morning following this very satis- ced to swallow the nauscous doze of Sinvery, bruises and sprains, never falling of success. factory experiment, the application was again in order that Slaveholders may have the premade—this time behind the cars of the patient. ponderance over Freemen in the control of MUTTON VS. PORK.—The American a yellowish white matter, and at last a very should awaken a desire on the part of some pear a thousand times, or at least till what small quantity of blood, when the coin was Americans to return to the principles upon we say has had some effect on our countryremoved, and again found, as before coated which the Union was founded, and to festab- men, that a pound of lean, tender, juicy lish justice, insure domestic tranquility, and mutton can be produced for ha'f the cost of In the first experiment the coins were used secure the blessings of Liberty for themselves the same quality of fat pork; that it is in-

of Mr. David Carrington of Bethany, having pork. We know nothing more delicious been troubled with an offensive acent about their premises for a week past, which smelled discovered any indication of the presence of so much like decaying offal that Mr. C. and superior." his workmen commenced a search last Friday simple in its principles and easy of application, to ascertain the cause of the maisance. After is destined to be bailed with acclamations of a diligent search they discovered the dead thanksgiving by thousands suffering from that body of a man among the underbrush near. The hoster the give, the more force it will their residence.

was partially decayed, but not so much as to glue should be app led imme liately after bollrender recognition impossible. After an ex- ing. Glue loses much of its strength by freamination of the features and form of the quent remelting; that give, therefore, which deceased, it was ascertained to be the budy of is nextly made, is much preferable to that Henry Collyer, of Woodbury.

Further inquiry has brought to light the cause of his death. It seems that the unfortunate LAGER BIER-How IT IS MADE,man was of intemperate habit, and lett his An interesting lager bier trial came off in time." He went to Seymour, and was seen teresting lager bier statistics were brought there on the 4th, where he procured a pail out on oath, and may, therefore, be believed. and went to the distillery of Stoddard Chat. Mr. Solomon Keyaer was the defendant, and field, situated on the boder of the town of was charged with keeping a disorderly bier Bethany, where (it is said) he stole liquor saloon. A very respectable German witness enough to fill his pail, and then became gross. in the case defined what lager bie- was. He ly intexicated.

"Junction Railroad," and filled the office with profession, also, that attention which its transhonor to himself and profit to the Company until his death.

I really of the liquor that he died. His body with a casing of rosin, and was laid in a central his death.

I really of the liquor that he died. His body with a casing of rosin, and was laid in a central his death. merse his face in the pail of liquor!

effects of liquor was probably never record, under their waistbands in one day, and never led. Away from his family—from home and feel the effects.

our National birth-day, as a true disciple of bounded limitless regions of infinite space; about that going away alone, that wrapping low on the head. They then separated. After the mantle of immortality about us; that put- on the head. They then separated. After the mantle of immortality about us; that put- on the head. They then separated. After the mantle of immortality about us; that put- on the head. They then separated. After the mantle of immortality about us; that put- on the head. They then separated immoderately; and then, to mined man has been wantenly and breely room and back, then, stopping opposite the stricken down, became heaverted and would Minister, he cried, in the exact one and manvindicate the rights of freemen spains a horde mer of the Cger, "Vulkhonskyt pay M. of lawless and has breaking ruffi as." Marriard 1,000 silver roubles." The Em-The Easton Argus, published at Reader's process a moment was disconcerted, but reormer home, tells us that his removal has e- covering himself, with a faint smile he or-u, on a ground disconnected with the employ-Gov. REEDER'S REMOVAL -THE thact from their condition in the plantations gloom; and bring ng j y and peace — those bright waterrise above a grave? And Sines you fair silvery mean with less yet the River is not alone in that; for many being included in the last draft or Ohio militial was scarcely able to articulate, and was sufdestination. I therefore was, and still are, "In turning Gov. Reeder out of office of opinion that the whole work ought to be witnessed are of the strange mutations and percents heads in age, to make the winter's the studied in this way, going once a week & unopposed by any theoretical objections, and him. Thus it is that "those whom the Gods hig, as a cure for the measles. The bluesoms rioters and ususpers to whom the President by disping the straw into chloride of lime, dis-ed to either pole or battery, and placed in the nority of its constituents.

The Judiciary, denying the rights of person for remaining. Take a pint of the spirits of tween the cheek and the jaw. Left thus a and property, and afraid to apply the Law, turpentine, to which add half an sance of fow minutes the positive pole was taken from lest the criminals arraign and condemn the campber; let it stand till the campbor is dissolved then rule it on the part affected, and in a few mirutes changed to the mouth, and A Territory that came to our fathers fees, it will never fail of removing the complaint.

> Agriculturest has the following excellent finitely healthier food, especially in the summer senson, and those who cut it become A Horrible Death.—The family more muscular, and can do work with greater than smound mutten hams, of the Southdown breed of sheep. Venison itself is not

> HINTS IN MAKING AND USING GLUB. exert in keeping the two parts gladd togeth-The body appeared in a sitting posture and er; therefore, in all large and long joints, the which has been re-boiled.

nome of the 4th of July to have "a good Petersburgh, Va., on Saturday, is, which insaid it was manufactured of malt and hops, On the evening of the 4th of July he was and to make it better an extra amount of the seen in that vicinity, and he probably made the latter was thrown in-that was bier .his way into the brush, where he drank so Phis compound was placed in a burrel lined discovered, the body was in a sitting posture, rived the name lager. This was lager, or with the pail of liquor before him, and his "stock ale." The witness thought it might head leaned forward so as to completely int- burst a man, but would make him drunk. He A more terrible death than this from the Philadelphia to put 17 to 20 glasses (pints)